

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 23, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, June 23, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States: partly cloudy weather and local thunder storms, with light to southwest winds, lower barometer, stationary or slight rise in temperature.

AT THE SHIP YARDS.—Business is now brisk at the two ship yards in this city. As stated in the Gazette, the steamer Enterprise arrived at the yard of the Potomac Manufacturing Company, yesterday, from Nanamox Beach, with a portion of the new schooner, the keel of which has already been laid. Soon a large force of men will be at work at the yard. The appointment of Mr. Charles Ward, of Maine, to superintend the work at the yard, is with a view to continuing the building of vessels there. Arrangements are being made for the early erection of a saw mill at the yard.

At the yard of Messrs. J. P. Agnew & Co., Mr. Crawford of Maine, is making a vigorous effort, with about eighty workmen, to get the new schooner, now nearly completed there, off the stocks by the first of July.

Messrs. Agnew & Co., have secured Mr. Crawford to superintend the work at their yard, and the prospects are that the building of vessels will be continued there.

MASONIC OFFICERS.—At the meeting of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 22, last night, the following officers were re-elected: Worshipful Master, Judge Chas. E. Stuart; Senior Warden, F. E. Corbett; Junior Warden, A. W. Armstrong; Treasurer, John A. Field; Secretary, James S. Douglas. The other officers of the lodge will be appointed by the Master, and the installation take place to-morrow night. Alexandria Washington Lodge was instituted one hundred years ago, and during its long and eventful history it has been presided over by many distinguished citizens, including Gen. Geo. Washington, from whom it takes its name. During the present Masonic year the lodge will hold a centennial celebration, and it is said the affair will be one worthy the illustrious record of the venerable organization.

AT THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.—There were no arrests by the Police last night and no trials of criminals at police headquarters to-day, but there were before the Mayor a large number of owners of unlicensed dogs, all of whom were made to take out licenses for their animals, except two, who, it was found, had already paid for the privilege of keeping their pets. On and after Monday next all dogs found without medals will be picked up by the dog catchers, who will, as will be seen by the notice of the Mayor in another place in to-day's Gazette, on that day commence their rounds. The war on unlicensed dogs thus commenced will be continued until the last unprotected "friend of man" will have disappeared from the city.

CONCLUSION OF THE EXERCISES AT SEMINARY HILL.—The commencement exercises of the Theological Seminary and Episcopal High School, which have been in progress nearly all this week, were concluded to-day, by the ordination, in the chapel of the Seminary of nine young gentlemen, including Mr. Douglass Hoof, of this city, as priests, and eight, this year's senior class, as deacons. The names of all the candidates for orders were given in yesterday's Gazette. Bishop Whitley ordained all except Mr. Francis Keyes Leavell, of Jefferson county, West Va., who was ordained by Bishop Peterkin. The ceremonies were witnessed by a large audience, including many from this city.

THE STATE'S INTEREST IN THE W. & O. R. R.—Judge Charles E. Stuart yesterday forwarded to the Board of Public Works of the State, at Richmond, a check for $44,000, part of the purchase money of the Washington and Ohio Railroad, paid on account of the indebtedness of that road to the State. There is still about $200,000 due the State, which will be paid over when the next payment is made on the purchase of the W. & O. by the Washington and Western Company.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.—A number of Republicans and Readjusters are urging Mr. Benjamin Austin for the position of Superintendent of Public Schools of Alexandria county. Mr. Austin has been discharging, and efficiently, too, so his many friends say, the duties of the office since the death of Mr. Wilbert.

ALLEGED A LUNATIC.—Wesley Baker, colored, of Alexandria county, confined in the jail here, was yesterday adjudged a lunatic and ordered to be sent to an insane asylum, by a commission consisting of Drs. Gibson and Smith, of this city, and Justice S. Mills, Wormley and Drummond of the county.

CONTRADICTION.—We are authorized to state that the information received from Augusta, in reference to the purchase by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad of a controlling interest in the Richmond and Danville syndicate and the Virginia Midland railway is incorrect.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Orphan Asylum has been rented to the City School Board for $120 per year. A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Austin Pollard and Mary K. Knight, both of Stafford co., Va.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund met this afternoon to prepare their report, which will be presented to the City Council next Tuesday night.

There was a heavy rain last night, which, however, did not have a very cooling effect upon the atmosphere, for the weather to-day has been oppressively warm.

The train over the Virginia Midland Railway due here at 7.15 this morning did not arrive until 10.30, having been detained by the engine getting off the track.

Among the nominations sent to the Senate yesterday for confirmation was that of Lieutenant Commander Richard P. Leary to be Commander, Com. Leary is well known in this city.

Mr. George Evans, a clerk in the store of Messrs. McBurney & Son, while opening a can of goods this morning, had the thumb of his left hand nearly cut off by the slipping of the knife he was using. The wound was dressed at Mr. Lawrence Stabler's drug store.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. S. Bernheimer, whose death occurred yesterday, took place this afternoon. The remains, encased in a plain pine box, were interred in the Hebrew cemetery. All the customs of the Hebrew religion concerning the burial of the dead were observed.

Alfonzo Arrington and a young man named Bekley fought a prize fight, to determine which of the two was the best man, near the canal this afternoon. Bekley had his ear and hand badly bitten and his face bruised. The fight was brought to a close by the police, and both parties were arrested and locked up. Subsequently Arrington, who was not much hurt, was released by depositing $5 for his appearance.

Thomas T. Jones, a well-known citizen, of Norfolk, died yesterday.

MARRIAGE OF Mr. Aleck Hunter and Miss Alice Swain.

At 12 o'clock yesterday, at the residence of Colonel H. D. Whitcomb, north side of Marshall, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, Mr. Alexander Hunter, of Alexandria, and Miss Alice Swain were united in marriage, the Rev. J. G. Armstrong, D. D., of Monumental church, officiating. The only attendants were Hon. G. A. Mushbach, of Alexandria, and Miss Eva Swain, sister of the bride, who has just completed her musical education at the Philadelphia Academy. From 12 to 4 there was a reception, and a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were present to wish them a long and happy life.

The bride wore a rich silk, tulle trimmings, and pearls, ornaments and nuptial baubles. Kennedy's orchestra, occupying seats beneath trees in the side-yard, discoursed delicious music, and the parlors and dining-room of the house were liberally and tastefully decorated with flowers.

Mr. Hunter ("Chasseur") is a journalist, especially well known on account of his many letters, mostly from Virginia, which have appeared in the Washington Capital and other prominent newspapers. He was at one time a member of the House of Delegates, and Mr. Mushbach was his colleague. Mr. Hunter is a gentleman of decided talent, and his letters descriptive of Virginia scenery and hunting-grounds are quite models in their way. It is understood that he has of late been engaged in a literary undertaking of a more serious character than any that has yet engaged his attention.

Miss Swain is the sweet singer of Richmond generally, and of the Monumental church particularly. Her voice has been heard in nearly all the notable musical entertainments given here for some years past, and she has been a willing contributor to many charitable enterprises, the last of which, quite recently, was a benefit for a disabled Confederate soldier. Lovely as is her voice, it is excelled, her intimate friends avow, by the beauties of her character. She is quite a treasure to the city, and we will not forgive Mr. Hunter for wooing and winning her, unless, indeed, he concludes to settle down here in Richmond. Either New York or Richmond will be his future home.

The couple left yesterday afternoon on their bridal tour, going from here to Old Point. Mr. Hunter received the following before leaving:

ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 22, 1882.

Alexander Hunter, 1010 Marshall Street.

The city government congratulates you upon your marriage, and Alexandria sends greeting. We are with you in spirit, and wish you and your bride long life and happiness.

Kemper, Corporation Attorney; Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, city; Edmund Burke, Commonwealth's Attorney, county; Benjamin Austin, clerk of the courts of Alexandria county, and on behalf of the majority of the citizens of the county. —Richmond Dispatch.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Mr. Geo. W. Foreman, an old employee of the Virginia Midland rail road at Warrenton has, on account of bad health, retired from the service of the road on a pension of half his former salary.

A negro named William Medley, who attempted to outrage a child in Pleasant Grove district, Norfolk county, last February has been convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years.

SEVERAL citizens of South Carolina, appreciating the great importance of the approaching election in that State, and desiring that every precaution be taken to insure success, have written to Senator Hampton asking the use of his name in the democratic convention as a candidate for Governor. To avoid the necessity of so many replies General Hampton writes a letter to the Charles News and Courier declining in advance the proposed honor and stating clearly his position. His public life he says is drawing to a close, and being anxious to retire therefrom at the earliest possible moment he does not wish to assume further responsibilities or enter upon the discharge of other duties.

The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appal says that it is understood that Mr. Alex. Hunter will be a candidate for Congress for the 8th district before the coalition convention to be held at Warrenton, August 17.
